What are the different parts of Medicare?

Medicare has four parts:

PART A

Medicare Part A covers inpatient hospital care, skilled nursing facility care, and hospice care. As a rule, you’re allowed to sign up for Medicare Part A when you turn 65 and have worked for at least 10 years. Some disabilities may also qualify you for Part A even if you haven’t turned 65 yet. You automatically qualify if you were a federal employee on January 1, 1983, and you have worked at least 10 years. If you can get Part A at no cost, you should take it, even if you’re still working.

PART B

Medicare Part B covers many services that aren’t covered by Part A. That includes doctor services, outpatient care, and some self-administered drugs. You must pay a monthly premium (or fee) for Part B. Your premium is usually deducted from your Social Security check or your retirement check. Members with higher incomes may have higher premiums.

You can enroll in Kaiser Permanente Senior Advantage for Federal Members if you have Medicare Part B and are an FEHB Kaiser Permanente member.

For more information about enrolling in Part B, please call Social Security at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778), Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. You can also visit the FEHB website at kp.org/feds.
PART C

Medicare Part C, also known as Medicare Advantage, is offered by private insurance companies that are approved by Medicare. It includes both Part A and Part B. Kaiser Permanente Senior Advantage for Federal Members is a Medicare Advantage plan. If you decide to join our Medicare health plan, you’ll get more coverage, such as lower cost sharing and better benefits.

Note: For Federal members, you don’t need to enroll in Parts B or C if you want to keep the coverage you already have under the FEHB program. However, you do get better benefits by enrolling in Senior Advantage. You do not need to suspend your FEHB coverage to enroll in Senior Advantage for Federal Members.

PART D

Medicare Part D covers prescription drugs. Some Medicare Advantage plans charge a monthly premium for Part D drug coverage. If you decide to join Kaiser Permanente Senior Advantage for Federal Members, you will automatically get Part D as a part of your plan with no additional monthly premium. Your FEHB or Kaiser Permanente premium won’t go up when you enroll in Kaiser Permanente Senior Advantage for Federal Members. If your income is above a certain limit, you may pay a higher amount. This is called a Part D income-related monthly adjustment amount (IRMAA).

What is Creditable Coverage? If you have Kaiser Permanente High Option or Standard Option as your health plan, your prescription drug coverage is already, on average, as good as or better than standard Medicare Part D. Because it’s as good as or better than standard Medicare coverage, it is considered “Creditable Coverage.” That means that if you, as a Kaiser Permanente member, choose not to join a Medicare prescription drug plan when you’re first able to, you won’t have to pay a penalty if you join later, as long as you’ve kept your FEHB coverage.

However, you don’t lose any prescription drug benefits when you enroll in Senior Advantage for Federal Members.
What’s the ADVANTAGE to enrolling in a Kaiser Permanente Medicare health plan?

If you decide to enroll in Senior Advantage for Federal Members, you’ll get better benefits than with your FEHB coverage alone. You’ll get all of your FEHB benefits plus:

- Lower copayments for office visits and for most other services, such as inpatient hospital admissions, most prescription drugs, and many other benefits;
- Up to a 100-day supply of prescription drugs at Plan pharmacies for one copayment (High Option only);
- Extra credit toward the purchase of eyewear, including eyeglasses;
- Extra coverage for preventive dental through DeltaCare® USA with no added premium.

A healthy extra

With Kaiser Permanente Senior Advantage for Federal Members, you’ll get a preventive dental benefit (High and Standard Option only) and a credit toward glasses or contact lenses.
Is there a penalty for not enrolling in Medicare Parts A or B as soon as I am able to?

Generally, there is no penalty if you choose not to sign up for Part A when you are first allowed to enroll in Medicare.

If you choose not to enroll in Part B when you are first able to and you and your spouse are both retired, you may have permanently higher costs if you decide to sign up later on. Your Part B payments could go up by 10 percent for each year that you delay signing up for Part B.

However, if you or your spouse keeps working, you may be able to delay your Part B enrollment without a penalty. This penalty is subject to change.

For current FEHB Kaiser Permanente members:

If you would like to switch to Senior Advantage for Federal Members, you must choose the plan option that matches the Kaiser Permanente FEHB option you have now. For example, if you’re a Kaiser Permanente High Option member, you must enroll in Senior Advantage for Federal Members High Option.

You may be able to change your enrollment when you become eligible for Medicare. Please refer directly to opm.gov and your employing agency or retirement office to learn more about when you can make plan changes outside of Open Season.
